INSOLVENCY LAW JOURNAL

Volume 23, Number 1

May	201	5
-----	-----	---

EDITORIAL	3
ARTICLES
Global rules on conflict-of-laws matters in international insolvency ca Australian perspective – Mark Wellard and Rosalind Mason	ases: An
The 2012 Report Transnational Insolvency: Global Principles for Co-ope International Insolvency Cases – commissioned by The American Law In conjunction with The International Insolvency Institute – annexed 23 Global Conflict-of-Laws Matters in International Insolvency Cases. These proposed Gloare intended to "serve as legislative recommendations" to (inter alia) promote u and greater certainty in the unpredictable area of conflict of laws. This article p brief commentary upon the 23 proposed Global Rules from an Australian per (comparing the effect and intent of each rule with the current Australian conflict position) and offers some conclusions as to the merits of the "Global Rules" init	stitute in Rules on bal Rules iniformity provides a erspective et-of-laws
The Willmott Forests decision: Changes to the corporate insolvency regime – Jonathan Ballo	?
The rights and responsibilities of the liquidator in the context of corporate insolvematter addressed by both Federal and State superior courts of record on a daily be proliferation of the use of the corporate entity in modern domestic commerce that a working understanding of Ch 5 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), dea external administrations, is quasi-mandatory for any commercial legal practice. It of Willmott Growers Group Inc v Willmott Forests Ltd (Receivers and appointed) (in liq) (2013) 251 CLR 592; [2013] HCA 51, the High Court of Austrequired to deal with s 568 of the Corporations Act concerning decisions by the to dispose of company property and what effect this had for stakeholders with an a) in the company, and, b) in the property. This article critically considers the rather High Court in this decision, and focuses particularly on the court's anal whether or not the decision has aided or detracted from the development of corpinsolvency law in Australia.	pasis. The mas meant uling with in the case managers tralia was liquidator in interest, tionale of alysis and porate and
RECENT DEVELOPMENTS – David Morrison
Warrants to liquidators to search for and seize property removed liquidation – Matt Karam
REPORT FROM NEW ZEALAND – Lynne Taylor
Issues of interpretation in the Insolvency Act 2006 (NZ) – Lynne Taylor	50

(2015) 23 Insolv LJ 1

2 (2015) 23 Insolv LJ 1