WORKPLACE REVIEW

Workplace Review provides IR/employment practitioners with the practical insights you need in a readily accessible form. Importantly, it does so while engaging with that focus on people which is fundamental to this area of practice. Content includes interviews with influential practitioners, advocates, judges and academics as well as concise articles presenting the tactical and strategic implications of legal and policy developments that go beyond mere description.

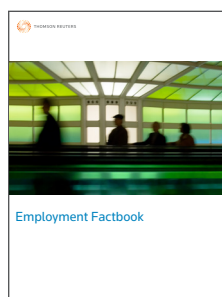

Under the experienced stewardship of General Editors Jeffrey Phillips SC and Neil Napper, Workplace Review engages your interest while acknowledging that practitioners have limited time for reading.
